Bachelor of Science in Justice Studies Degree Requirements—2007-08, 2008-09 Catalog

Semester Hours Required

A minimum of 120 hours and 45 upper-division semester hours (300 and 400 level courses) are required for a bachelor's degree.

First Year Composition Requirement

Students must demonstrate reasonable proficiency in written English by achieving a grade of "C" or better in both ENG 101 and 102 or in ENG 105 or their equivalents. Should a student receive a grade lower than "C" in any of the courses, it must be repeated until the specified proficiency is demonstrated.

General Studies Requirements

All undergraduate students are required to complete the university General Studies requirements in order to be eligible for graduation. Many general studies requirements may simultaneously fulfill major requirements.

Justice Studies

The major requires 45 semester hours (minimum grade of "C"): JUS=30; Writing=3, Related Field or Discipline Specific Elective=12

Double Counting Restrictions

*You may NOT double count courses within the University General Studies Core Requirements.

*You may NOT double count courses from the Science & Society Requirements with Natural Science, Humanities/Fine Arts, Social/Behavioral Science, or JUS courses.

You may, however, double count the L, MA, CS, C, G, and/or H requirements in the college and major areas when appropriate.

CLAS: Graduation Requirements

Six hours of Science & Society must be completed

Critical Tracking Program

All freshmen will participate in ASU's Critical Tracking Program. This effort is designed to assist students in managing their academic experience. Critical Tracking will give students the tools to successfully follow their academic roadmap to graduation. For information, visit www.asu.edu/clas/justice or contact Justice Studies Undergraduate Advisement at 480.965.7682.

For a comprehensive description of all degree requirements for the Bachelor of Science in Justice Studies, consult the SJSI Undergraduate Advisement Guide.

Earning J-1 Status

For Justice Studies students to enroll in J-2 courses, they must earn at least a "C" in each of the JUS required courses—JUS 105 (or 305), 301, 302, and 303—and earn a minimum GPA of 2.50 for these four courses.

Earning Capstone Status

Justice Studies students must earn Capstone status before enrolling in 400-level JUS resident credit courses required for graduation. The student must achieve Capstone status by the time the 87th credit hour is earned or else the student is disallowed from taking courses offered by the School. A student who transfers 58 or more semester hours must achieve Capstone status upon completion of 30 ASU semester hours. They may achieve Capstone status by:

earning a minimum of 56 semester hours;
earning a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.50;

completing the university General Studies Mathematics requirement (MA);

completing the following classes with a 2.50 minimum GPA and a minimum grade of "C" in each:

ENG 101, 102 First Year Comp or
ENG 105 Advanced First Year
Comp.
